

About Me

Hi! I'm an AI and Sci-Tech enthusiast with a passion for building smart, real-world solutions. As an aspiring AI & Machine Learning Engineer, I've developed predictive models and web applications that showcase both my problem-solving mindset and practical coding skills. I'm a pragmatic, adaptable learner who thrives in collaborative settings and values clear communication, teamwork, and continuous growth. I'm eager to contribute meaningfully to innovative projects –through internships, freelance roles, or team collaborations – while growing into a well-rounded, impact-driven engineer.
